

Audiobook Club Discussion Prompts

- 1 In what ways does narrator Jesse Nobess convey Tre's emotions throughout the audiobook?
- 2 The author's writing voice is powerful and distinct. How does Jesse Nobess's narration match up with the author's writing?
- 3 How does the author reveal the setting in each chapter? What is revealed about Tre's family and Ojibwe community?
- 4 Would you be friends with Tre? Why or why not? Which character(s) fits into your friend group? Why?
- 5 One theme in Rez Ball is living up to your potential. How does Tre struggle to live up to his potential? How does he succeed?
- 6 Belonging is another theme in Rez Ball. How does "belonging" affect the characters and their decisions?
- 7 Basketball games are an important part of the story. How does Jesse Nobess's narration fit the fast-paced games?

JOIN THE DISCUSSION

AudioFile Audiobook Club
audiofilemagazine.com/audiobook-club

Rez Ball by Byron Graves, read by Jesse Nobess

audiofilemagazine.com/audiobook-club

Editors' Note: Discussion prompts adapted from HarperCollins. Listen-Alikes from Novelist.